A charming character wisteria clad Victorian semi-detached family house in the heart of Camelsdale, with a stunning open plan kitchen/dining/family room.

THE PROPERTY

Built in the 1850's this well presented and individual period property which used to be the village sweet shop. The property is located right in the heart of Camelsdale and is only a short walk from the highly regarded village school and also within walking distance of the popular recreation ground, 2 village shops and the Mill Public House. The lower ground floor which was completed in 2022, has a wonderful open plan kitchen/dining room/snug with underfloor heating, a fireplace/woodburner and doors spilling out onto the rear garden. The kitchen has quartz topped work surfaces and island, a range of integrated appliances and a handy utilities cupboard for the washing machine and tumble dryer. There is also a cloakroom on this floor. On the upper ground floor there is a, front aspect family room/bedroom 4 and double aspect sitting room with an open fireplace and bay window with some lovely views over Camelsdale and beyond. On the first floor are 3 well balanced double bedrooms and a family bath/shower room with a modern white suite.

THE GROUNDS

The front garden is predominantly paved with screening shrubs behind a low level front wall and off street parking on the side driveway. From here there is a side gate and steps down to the level rear garden, this is both private and well screened with established shrub and flower borders, paved terraced pathway and access to garden sheds.

SITUATION

On the edge of the South Downs National Park, Camelsdale village provides Arnolds Garage petrol station/convenience store, a popular school and the National Trust owned Marley Common and Shottermill Ponds. In nearby Weyhill are Tesco and M & S Food along with local shops, cafes and restaurants. Haslemere town centre offers a comprehensive range of shops and boutiques including Waitrose, Boots and W H Smith, restaurants, public houses and coffee bars. There are two hotels; The Georgian in the High Street and Lythe Hill both of which have spas. The Edge and Haslemere Leisure Centre provide excellent sports facilities along with Haslemere Recreation Ground and Woolmer Hill. There are numerous golf courses of high quality in the area and a good selection of highly regarded state and private schools. The main line station offers a fast and frequent service into London Waterloo in under one hour and the nearby A3 provides links to London, the motorway network and south coast.
