SITUATION

Orchard Road is a desirable location situated within the popular village of Shalford, which is 2.4 miles to the south of Guildford. The village features a range of local shops catering for everyday needs, including a convenience store and chemist. The Seahorse and Queen Victoria public houses are within walking distance, along with the village green and a train station with a service between Reading and Gatwick Airport via Guildford. There is a mix of historic buildings, scenic countryside and a sense of community.

Guildford is a large and historic county town offering a comprehensive range of shopping, social, recreational & educational facilities and widely considered to be a very desirable place to live. The town is situated on the River Wey, the cobbled High Street paved with granite setts and is surrounded by countryside. Guildford still retains a high street market every Friday and Saturday with monthly farmers markets usually held on the first Tuesday of each month. The town offers a great selection of restaurants, pubs, bars and cafés plus independent and national retailers amongst its attractive streets. Guildford's mainline railway station provides a service to London Waterloo in approx. 35 minutes and there is also London Road train station. The A3 & A31 provide access to the South Coast and the M25 to central London & international airports. Sporting and recreational facilities are extremely well catered for at the Surrey Sports Park and Spectrum Leisure Centre. Guildford lies at the edge of the Surrey Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, offering miles of hiking, cycling and riding country. There is an excellent choice of both state and private schools in the area serving all age groups and furthermore, the highly acclaimed University of Surrey.

DIRECTIONS

From Guildford, head south along Millbrook (A281). Keep following the road, passing over a small bridge and St. Marys Church on your right. After passing The Seahorse public house, Orchard Road will be on your left hand side.

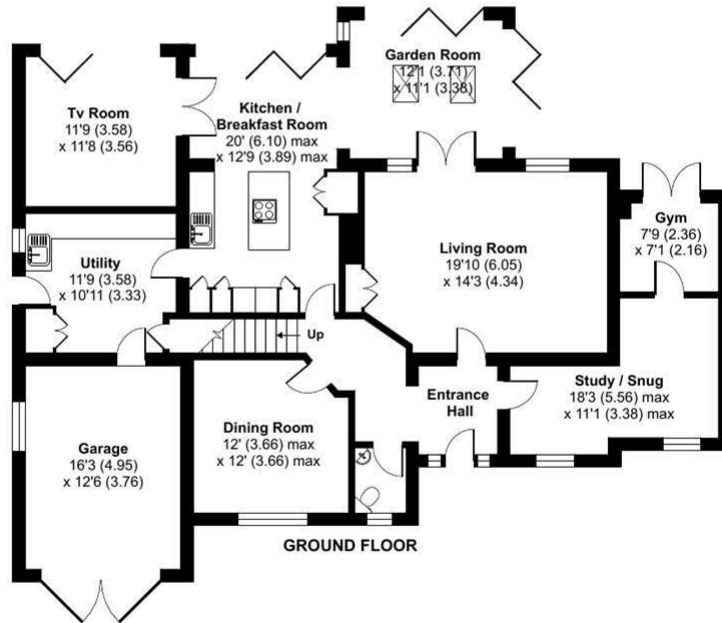

18 Orchard Road is a quality detached home. Houses of this size and quality rarely come to the market - an early viewing is highly recommended.
