THE PROPERTY

We are pleased to bring the market Grey Walls Bungalow, a 1960's timber framed bungalow which has been lovingly owned within the same family for over 40 years. The internal accommodation has been extended and added to several times over the years which has greatly enhanced the overall size, a fact that is not immediately obvious from first glance.

In its current guise the property has four bedrooms, several reception rooms, a fairly modern kitchen, a large utility and two bathrooms. The property could be lived in as is for many more years or could be completely revamped and remodelled.

THE GROUNDS

Grey Walls Bungalow is set in grounds of around 1/3 acre, with gardens all around and offering great screening and privacy from neighbouring homes. There are a variety of outbuildings and plenty of parking on the gated driveway. The rear garden enjoys a southerly aspect, has areas of patio and lawn as well as borders which are well stocked with plants and shrubbery bushes.

SITUATION

This property occupies an established and prominent position in the favoured village of Hill Brow, and is conveniently situated for access Petersfield, Liphook and Liss all of which have mainline stations which connect with London Waterloo, as well as excellent ranges of shopping facilities, coffee shops and public houses. In Hill Brow itself, there is the brilliant Jolly Drover pub, with its excellent food and choice of drinks. There is easy connection to both the South coast and London via the A3 which is close by. Within the area there is a range of excellent schooling, including Ditcham Park between South Harting and Petersfield, Churcher's College, Bedales in Petersfield, and Seaford College near Petworth.
